ORDER

On May 22, 2020, following a telephone conference held with counsel for the plaintiff and with the defendant, Jason B. Alexander, pro se, the Court entered an order that stayed case deadlines, required Mr. Alexander to obtain licensed counsel to represent the corporate entity by July 17, 2020, and scheduled a telephonic status conference to take place today, July 17, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. before the undersigned magistrate judge. (Filing No. 28 - Order; Filing No. 29 - Audio File). Counsel for the plaintiff appeared for the scheduled conference, but Mr. Alexander did not participate in the telephone conference or otherwise notify the Court that he would be unable to appear. Counsel for the plaintiff represented to the Court that she has not been in contact with Mr. Alexander since the date of the previous telephone conference. Mr. Alexander also failed to obtain licensed counsel to represent the corporate defendant entity. Under the circumstances,

IT IS ORDERED:

2. The defendants are notified that further failure to appear at scheduled telephone hearings or comply with court orders, including the requirement that corporate entities be represented by licensed counsel, may result in appropriate sanctions, including entry and/or judgment of default against them.

Dated this 17th day of July, 2020.
